4 Amounts not in New Zealand currency

- (1) Where, for the purposes of any provision of this Act, it is necessary to determine whether or not the amount of any cash (whether alone or together with any other amount of cash) exceeds the prescribed amount, and the cash is denominated in a currency other than New Zealand currency, the amount of the cash shall be taken to be the equivalent in New Zealand currency, calculated at the rate of exchange on the date of the determination, or, if there is more than one rate of exchange on that date, at the average of those rates.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, a written certificate purporting to be signed by an officer of any bank in New Zealand that a specified rate of exchange prevailed between currencies on a specified day and that at such rate a specified sum in one currency is equivalent to a specified sum in terms of the currency of New Zealand shall be sufficient evidence of the rate of exchange so prevailing and of the equivalent sums in terms of the respective currencies.

- 5 Act to bind the Crown
This Act binds the Crown.

Part 2
Obligations on financial institutions to verify identity

Obligations on financial institutions to verify identity

- 6 Financial institutions to verify identity of facility holders
- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) of this section, where any request is made to a financial institution for a person to become a facility holder (whether in relation to an existing facility provided by that financial institution or by means of the establishment, by that financial institution, of a new facility), that financial institution shall verify the identity of that person.
- (2) Where subsection (1) of this section applies in respect of any request for a person to become a facility holder in relation to a facility, the financial institution shall verify the identity of that person—
- (a) before that person becomes a facility holder in relation to that facility; or
 - (b) as soon as practicable after that person becomes a facility holder in relation to that facility, in any case where—
 - (i) that person belongs to a class of persons with whom the financial institution does not normally have face to face dealings; and
 - (ii) it is impracticable to undertake the verification before the person becomes a facility holder.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section, in any case where, in relation to a facility provided by a financial institution, there are 3 or more facility holders, it shall not be necessary for that financial institution to have verified the identity of every such facility holder, as long as the financial institution has verified the identity of every person who is, for the time being, a principal facility holder.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section, nothing in that subsection requires a trustee or administration manager or investment manager of a superannuation scheme to verify the identity of any person—

- (a) who becomes a member of that superannuation scheme by virtue of the transfer, to that scheme, of all the members of another superannuation scheme; or
- (b) who becomes a member of a section of that superannuation scheme by virtue of the transfer, to one section of that scheme, of all the members of another section of the same scheme.

7 Financial institutions to verify identity of persons conducting certain occasional transactions

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, where any person conducts an occasional transaction through a financial institution, that financial institution shall verify the identity of that person in any case where—
 - (a) the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount; or
 - (b) the following conditions apply, namely,—
 - (i) that person, or any other person, has also conducted or is conducting one or more other occasional transactions through that financial institution; and
 - (ii) the circumstances in which those transactions have been, or are being, conducted provide reasonable grounds to believe that the transactions have been, or are being, structured to avoid the application of paragraph (a) of this subsection; and
 - (iii) the total amount of cash involved in those transactions exceeds the prescribed amount.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section, nothing in that subsection requires a financial institution to verify the identity of a person who conducts an occasional transaction (in this subsection referred to as the transactor) through that financial institution in any case where,—
 - (a) that financial institution is unable to readily determine whether or not the transaction involves cash because the funds involved in the transaction are deposited by

- the transactor into a facility (being a facility in relation to which that financial institution is a facility holder) provided by another financial institution; and
- (b) if those funds consisted of or included cash, that other financial institution would be required, under this Part of this Act, to verify the identity of the transactor.
- (3) Without limiting any other factors that a financial institution may consider for the purpose of determining whether or not any transactions are or have been structured to avoid the application of subsection (1)(a) of this section, a financial institution shall consider, for that purpose, the following factors:
- (a) the time frame within which the transactions are conducted;
- (b) whether or not the parties to the transactions are the same person, or are associated in any way.
- (4) Where subsection (1) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the person conducting the transaction,—
- (a) where paragraph (a) of that subsection applies,—
- (i) before the transaction is conducted; or
- (ii) as soon as practicable after the transaction is conducted, in any case where—
- (A) the person conducting the transaction belongs to a class of persons with whom the financial institution does not normally have face to face dealings; and
- (B) it is impracticable to undertake the verification before the transaction is conducted;
- (b) Where paragraph (b) of that subsection applies, as soon as practicable after the conditions specified in that paragraph are satisfied in respect of that transaction.
- (5) Where subsection (1) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall also ask the person who is conducting or, as the case may be, conducted the transaction whether or not the transaction is being conducted or was conducted on behalf of any other person.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) of this section limits section 8 of this Act.

8 Verification where persons acting on behalf of others in respect of occasional transactions

- (1) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, and without limiting section 7 of this Act, where—
- (a) a person conducts an occasional transaction through a financial institution; and
 - (b) the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount; and
 - (c) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is conducting the transaction on behalf of any other person or persons,—
- then, in addition to complying with the requirements of section 7 of this Act, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the other person or persons.
- (2) Without limiting section 7 of this Act, where a person conducts an occasional transaction through a financial institution and the following conditions apply, namely,—
- (a) that person, or any other person, has also conducted or is conducting one or more other occasional transactions through that financial institution; and
 - (b) the circumstances in which those transactions have been, or are being, conducted provide reasonable grounds to believe—
 - (i) that the person is conducting the transactions on behalf of any other person or persons; and
 - (ii) that the transactions have been, or are being, structured to avoid the application of subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (c) the total amount of cash involved in those transactions exceeds the prescribed amount,—
- then, in addition to complying with the requirements of section 7 of this Act, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the person or persons on whose behalf it is believed the transactions are being conducted.
- (3) Without limiting any other factors that a financial institution may consider for the purpose of determining whether or not any transactions have been structured to avoid the application of subsection (1) of this section, a financial institution shall consider, for that purpose, the following factors:

- (a) the time frame within which the transactions are conducted;
 - (b) whether or not the parties to the transactions are the same person, or are associated in any way.
- (4) Where subsection (1) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the relevant person or persons—
 - (a) before the transaction is conducted; or
 - (b) as soon as practicable after the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction is being, or has been, conducted on behalf of the relevant person or persons.
- (5) Where subsection (2) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the relevant person or persons as soon as practicable after the conditions specified in that subsection are satisfied.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section requires a financial institution to verify the identity of any person in any case where—
 - (a) the person who is conducting the transaction is a financial institution; and
 - (b) the identity of the other person is required, by any provision of this Part of this Act, to be verified by that other financial institution.

9 Verification where facility holders acting on behalf of others

- (1) Subject to subsections (6) and (7) of this section, where—
 - (a) a person who is a facility holder in relation to a facility provided by a financial institution conducts a transaction through that facility; and
 - (b) the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount; and
 - (c) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is conducting the transaction on behalf of any other person or persons,—the financial institution shall verify the identity of the other person or persons.

- (2) Where a person who is a facility holder in relation to a facility provided by a financial institution conducts a transaction through that facility, and the following conditions apply, namely,—
 - (a) that person, or any other person, has also conducted or is conducting one or more other transactions through that facility; and
 - (b) the circumstances in which those transactions have been, or are being, conducted provide reasonable grounds to believe—
 - (i) that the person is conducting the transactions on behalf of any other person or persons; and
 - (ii) that the transactions have been, or are being, structured to avoid the application of subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (c) the total amount of cash involved in those transactions exceeds the prescribed amount,— the financial institution shall verify the identity of the other person or persons.
- (3) Without limiting any other factors that a financial institution may consider for the purpose of determining whether or not any transactions are or have been structured to avoid the application of subsection (1) of this section, a financial institution shall consider, for that purpose, the following factors:
 - (a) the time frame within which the transactions are conducted;
 - (b) whether or not the parties to the transactions are the same person, or are associated in any way.
- (4) Where subsection (1) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the relevant person or persons—
 - (a) before the transaction is conducted; or
 - (b) as soon as practicable after the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction is being, or has been, conducted on behalf of the relevant person or persons.
- (5) Where subsection (2) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the relevant person or persons as soon as practicable after the conditions specified in that subsection are satisfied.

- (6) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section requires a financial institution to verify the identity of any person in any case where—
- (a) the person who is conducting the transaction is a financial institution; and
 - (b) the identity of the other person is required, by any provision of this Part of this Act, to be verified by the other financial institution.
- (7) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section requires a financial institution to verify the identity of any person (in this subsection referred to as the other person) where—
- (a) the transaction is conducted by any person in his or her capacity as an employee of the other person, or as a director or principal or partner of the other person; and
 - (b) the financial institution has already verified the identity of the other person pursuant to this Part of this Act.

10 Application of sections 8 and 9 in relation to beneficiaries under trust

Nothing in section 8 or section 9 of this Act requires the verification of the identity of any person, in any case where it is believed—

- (a) that a transaction is being, or has been, conducted on that person's behalf in his or her capacity as the beneficiary under a trust; and
- (b) that the person does not have a vested interest under the trust.

11 Verification of identity where money laundering or proceeds of significant criminal activity suspected

- (1) Without limiting any other provision of this Part of this Act, where—
- (a) any person conducts any transaction through a financial institution (whether or not the transaction involves cash); and
 - (b) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to suspect—

- (i) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any person for a money laundering offence; or
 - (ii) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009,—
- that financial institution shall verify the identity of that person.
- (2) Where subsection (1) of this section applies in respect of any transaction, the financial institution shall verify the identity of the person as soon as practicable after the financial institution has reasonable grounds to hold, with respect to that transaction, a suspicion of any kind referred to in that subsection.

Section 11 heading: amended, on 1 December 2009, by section 187(1) of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

Section 11(1)(b)(ii): amended, on 1 December 2009, by section 187(2) of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

Procedures for verifying identity

12 Procedures for verifying identity

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) to (5) of this section, where, by virtue of any provision of this Part of this Act, a financial institution is required to verify the identity of any person, that verification shall be done by means of such documentary or other evidence as is reasonably capable of establishing the identity of that person.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, in verifying the identity of any person, a financial institution may rely (in whole or in part) on evidence used by that financial institution on an earlier occasion to verify that person's identity, if the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the evidence is still reasonably capable of establishing the identity of that person.
- (3) Where,—
- (a) by virtue of any provision of this Part of this Act, a financial institution is required to verify the identity of any person in relation to any facility; and
 - (b) transactions may be conducted through that facility by means of an existing facility—

- (i) that is provided by another financial institution; and
 - (ii) in relation to which that person is a facility holder,—
the first-mentioned financial institution shall be deemed to have complied with the requirement to verify the identity of that person if that financial institution takes all such steps as are reasonably necessary to confirm the existence of the other facility.
- (3A) A financial institution is to be treated as having complied with a requirement under section 6 to verify the identity of a person in relation to a facility if the financial institution—
 - (a) was earlier required under section 6 to verify the identity of the person in relation to another facility; and
 - (b) complied with the earlier requirement by taking steps, in accordance with subsection (3), to confirm the existence of a facility provided by another financial institution.
- (4) Where,—
 - (a) by virtue of any provision of this Part of this Act, a financial institution is required to verify the identity of any person in relation to an occasional transaction; and
 - (b) that occasional transaction is conducted by means of an existing facility—
 - (i) that is provided by another financial institution; and
 - (ii) in relation to which that person is a facility holder,—
the first-mentioned financial institution shall be deemed to have complied with the requirement to verify the identity of that person if that financial institution takes all such steps as are reasonably necessary to confirm the existence of the facility.
- (5) Where,—
 - (a) by virtue of any provision of this Part of this Act, a trustee or administration manager or investment manager of a superannuation scheme is required to verify the identity of any person by reason that the person has become, or is seeking to become, a member of that scheme; and

- (b) the superannuation scheme is established principally for the purpose of providing retirement benefits to employees,— that trustee or manager shall be deemed to have complied with the requirement to verify the identity of that person if that person's identity has been verified by his or her employer.

Section 12(3A): inserted, on 7 May 1999, by section 2 of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1999 (1999 No 32).

Offences

13 Offences

- (1) Every financial institution commits an offence against this section who,—
 - (a) in contravention of section 6(2)(a) of this Act, permits a person to become a facility holder in relation to any facility (being a facility provided by that institution) without first having verified the identity of that person; or
 - (b) where a person becomes a facility holder in relation to any facility provided by that financial institution, fails, in contravention of section 6(2)(b) of this Act, to verify the identity of that person as soon as practicable after that person becomes a facility holder in relation to that facility; or
 - (c) in contravention of section 7(4)(a)(i) of this Act, permits any person to conduct an occasional transaction through that financial institution, without first having verified the identity of that person, in any case where the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount; or
 - (d) where an occasional transaction is conducted by any person through that financial institution, in any case where the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount, fails, in contravention of section 7(4)(a)(ii) of this Act, to verify the identity of that person as soon as practicable after the transaction is conducted; or
 - (e) where an occasional transaction is conducted by any person through that financial institution, fails, in contravention of section 7(4)(b) of this Act, to verify the identity of that person as soon as practicable after the conditions specified in section 7(1)(b) of this Act are satisfied in respect of that transaction; or

- (f) where—
- (i) an occasional transaction is conducted by any person through that financial institution; and
 - (ii) the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount; and
 - (iii) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is conducting the transaction on behalf of any other person or persons,— fails, in contravention of section 8(4) of this Act, to verify the identity of that other person or, as the case requires, those other persons—
 - (iv) before the transaction is conducted; or
 - (v) as soon as practicable after the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction is being, or has been, so conducted; or
- (g) where—
- (i) an occasional transaction is conducted by any person through that financial institution; and
 - (ii) the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 8(2) of this Act apply in respect of that transaction,— fails, in contravention of section 8(5) of this Act, to undertake the verification required by section 8(2) of this Act as soon as practicable after the conditions specified in section 8(2) of this Act are satisfied in respect of that transaction; or
- (h) where—
- (i) a person who is a facility holder in relation to a facility provided by that financial institution conducts a transaction through that facility; and
 - (ii) the amount of cash involved in the transaction exceeds the prescribed amount; and
 - (iii) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is conducting the transaction on behalf of any other person or persons,—

fails, in contravention of section 9(4) of this Act, to verify the identity of that other person or, as the case requires, those other persons—

- (iv) before the transaction is conducted; or
 - (v) as soon as practicable after the financial institution has reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction is being, or has been, so conducted;
- or

(i) where—

- (i) a person who is a facility holder in relation to a facility provided by that financial institution conducts a transaction through that facility; and
- (ii) the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 9(2) of this Act apply in respect of that transaction,—

fails, in contravention of section 9(5) of this Act, to undertake the verification required by section 9(2) of this Act as soon as practicable after the conditions specified in section 9(2) of this Act are satisfied in respect of that transaction; or

(j) where—

- (i) a person conducts a transaction through that financial institution; and
- (ii) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to suspect—
 - (A) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any person for a money laundering offence; or
 - (B) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009,— fails, in contravention of section 11(2) of this Act, to verify the identity of that person as soon as practicable after the financial institution has reasonable grounds to hold that suspicion.

- (2) Every financial institution who commits an offence against this section is liable to a fine not exceeding,—
- (a) in the case of an individual, $20,000;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate, $100,000.

Section 13(1)(j)(ii)(B): amended, on 1 December 2009, by section 188 of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

14 Defence

- (1) It is a defence to a charge against a person in relation to a contravention of, or a failure to comply with, any provision of this Part of this Act if the defendant proves—
 - (a) that the defendant took all reasonable steps to ensure that the defendant complied with that provision; or
 - (b) that, in the circumstances of the particular case, the defendant could not reasonably have been expected to ensure that the defendant complied with the provision.
- (2) In determining, for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section, whether or not a financial institution took all reasonable steps to comply with a provision of this Part of this Act, the court shall have regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the financial institution and the activities in which it engages; and
 - (b) the existence and adequacy of any procedures established by the financial institution to ensure compliance with the provision, including (without limitation)—
 - (i) staff training; and
 - (ii) audits to test the effectiveness of any such procedures.
- (3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, subsection (1) of this section shall not apply unless, within 21 days after the service of the summons, or within such further time as the court may allow, the defendant has delivered to the prosecutor a written notice—
 - (a) stating that the defendant intends to rely on subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (b) specifying the reasonable steps that the defendant will claim to have taken.
- (4) In any such prosecution, evidence that the defendant took a step not specified in the written notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall not, except with the leave of the court, be admissible for the purpose of supporting a defence under subsection (1) of this section.

Part 3

Obligation to report suspicious transactions

Obligation to report suspicious transactions

15 Financial institutions to report suspicious transactions

- (1) Notwithstanding any other enactment or any rule of law, but subject to section 19 of this Act and to section 44(4) of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002, where—
- (a) any person conducts or seeks to conduct any transaction through a financial institution (whether or not the transaction or proposed transaction involves cash); and
 - (b) the financial institution has reasonable grounds to suspect—
 - (i) that the transaction or proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any person for a money laundering offence; or
 - (ia) that the transaction or proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002; or
 - (ii) that the transaction or proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009,—the financial institution shall, as soon as practicable after forming that suspicion, report that transaction or proposed transaction to the Commissioner.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, every suspicious transaction report shall—
- (a) be in the prescribed form (if any); and
 - (b) contain the details specified in the Schedule to this Act; and
 - (c) contain a statement of the grounds on which the financial institution holds the suspicion referred to in subsection (1)(b) of this section; and
 - (ca) be signed by a person authorised by the financial institution to sign suspicious transaction reports (except where the suspicious transaction report is forwarded by elec-

- tronic mail or other similar means of communication); and
- (d) be forwarded, in writing, to the Commissioner at Police National Headquarters at Wellington—
- (i) by way of facsimile transmission; or
 - (ii) by such other means (including, without limitation, electronic mail or other similar means of communication) as may be agreed from time to time between the Commissioner and the financial institution concerned.
- (3) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) or paragraph (ca) or paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of this section, where the urgency of the situation requires, a suspicious transaction report may be made orally to any Police employee authorised for the purpose by the Commissioner, but in any such case the financial institution shall, as soon as practicable, forward to the Commissioner a suspicious transaction report that complies with the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.
- (4) The Commissioner may confer the authority to receive a suspicious transaction report under subsection (3) on any specified Police employee or on Police employees of any level of position, or on any Police employees for the time being holding any specified office or specified class of offices.

Section 15(1): amended, on 18 October 2002, by section 77 of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002 (2002 No 34).

Section 15(1)(b)(ia): inserted, on 17 October 2009, by section 161(2) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (2009 No 35).

Section 15(3): amended, on 3 June 1998, by section 2(2) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

Section 15(4): substituted, on 1 October 2008, by section 130(1) of the Policing Act 2008 (2008 No 72).

16 Auditors may report suspicious transactions

Notwithstanding any other enactment or any rule of law, any person who, in the course of carrying out the duties of that person's occupation as an auditor, has reasonable grounds to suspect, in relation to any transaction,—

- (a) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any person for a money laundering offence; or
- (ab) that the transaction or proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002; or may report that transaction to any Police employee.
- (b) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009,—

Section 16: amended, on 1 October 2008, by section 130(1) of the Policing Act 2008 (2008 No 72).

Section 16(ab): inserted, on 17 October 2009, by section 161(2) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (2009 No 35).

Section 16(b): amended, on 1 December 2009, by section 190 of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

17 Protection of persons reporting suspicious transactions

(1) If any person—

- (a) discloses or supplies any information in any suspicious transaction report made under section 15; or
- (b) supplies any information in connection with such a report, whether at the time the report is made or afterwards,— that person has immunity from civil, criminal, and disciplinary proceedings in accordance with subsection (1A).

(1A) No civil, criminal, and disciplinary proceedings lie against a person to whom subsection (1) applies—

- (a) in respect of the disclosure or supply, or the manner of the disclosure or supply, by that person, of the information referred to in that subsection; or
- (b) for any consequences that follow from the disclosure or supply of that information,— unless the information was disclosed or supplied in bad faith.

- (2) Where any information is disclosed or supplied, pursuant to section 16 of this Act, to any member of the Police by any person, no civil, criminal, or disciplinary proceedings shall lie against that person—
- (a) in respect of the disclosure or supply, or the manner of the disclosure or supply, of that information by that person; or
 - (b) for any consequences that follow from the disclosure or supply of that information,—
- unless the information was disclosed or supplied in bad faith.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or subsection (1A) or subsection (2) of this section applies in respect of proceedings for an offence against section 22 of this Act.

Section 17(1): substituted, on 3 June 1998, by section 3(1) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

Section 17(1A): inserted, on 3 June 1998, by section 3(1) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

Section 17(3): amended, on 3 June 1998, by section 3(2) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

18 Immunity from liability for disclosure of information relating to money laundering transactions

Without limiting section 17 of this Act, where,—

- (a) any person does any act that, apart from section 244(a) of the Crimes Act 1961, would constitute, or the person believes would constitute, an offence against subsection (2) or subsection (3) of section 243 of that Act; and
- (b) in respect of the doing of that act, that person would have, by virtue of section 244(a) of that Act, a defence to a charge under that section of that Act; and
- (c) that person discloses, to any member of the Police, any information relating to a money laundering transaction (within the meaning of section 243(4) of that Act), being a money laundering transaction that constitutes (in whole or in part), or is connected with or related to, the act referred to in paragraph (a) of this section; and
- (d) that information is so disclosed, in good faith, for the purpose of or in connection with the enforcement or intended enforcement of any enactment or provision referred to in section 244(a) of the Crimes Act 1961; and

- (e) that person is otherwise under any obligation (whether arising by virtue of any enactment or any rule of law or otherwise howsoever) to maintain secrecy in relation to, or not to disclose, that information,— then, notwithstanding that the disclosure would otherwise constitute a breach of that obligation of secrecy or non-disclosure, the disclosure by that person, to that member of the Police, of that information is not a breach of that obligation of secrecy or non-disclosure or (where applicable) of any enactment by which that obligation is imposed.

Section 18(b): amended, on 1 October 2003, by section 34 of the Crimes Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 39).

Section 18(c): amended, on 1 October 2003, by section 34 of the Crimes Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 39).

Section 18(d): amended, on 1 October 2003, by section 34 of the Crimes Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 39).

19 Legal professional privilege

- (1) Nothing in section 15 of this Act requires any lawyer to disclose any privileged communication.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a communication is a privileged communication only if—
 - (a) it is a confidential communication, whether oral or written, passing between—
 - (i) a lawyer in his or her professional capacity and another lawyer in such capacity; or
 - (ii) a lawyer in his or her professional capacity and his or her client,—whether made directly or indirectly through an agent of either; and
 - (b) it is made or brought into existence for the purpose of obtaining or giving legal advice or assistance; and
 - (c) it is not made or brought into existence for the purpose of committing or furthering the commission of some illegal or wrongful act.
- (3) Where the information consists wholly or partly of, or relates wholly or partly to, the receipts, payments, income, expenditure, or financial transactions of a specified person (whether a lawyer, his or her client, or any other person), it shall not be a privileged communication if it is contained in, or comprises the whole or part of, any book, account, statement or other record prepared or kept by the lawyer in connection with a trust account of the lawyer within the meaning of section 2 of the Law Practitioners Act 1982.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, references to a lawyer include a firm in which he or she is a partner or is held out to be a partner.

20 Suspicious transaction reports not to be disclosed

- (1) A financial institution that has made, or is contemplating making, a suspicious transaction report shall not disclose the existence of that report or, as the case requires, that the making of such a report is contemplated to any person except—
- (a) the Commissioner or a Police employee who is authorised by the Commissioner to receive the information; or
 - (b) an officer or employee or agent of the financial institution, for any purpose connected with the performance of that person's duties; or
 - (c) a barrister or solicitor, for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the matter; or
 - (d) the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, for the purpose of assisting the Reserve Bank of New Zealand to carry out its functions under Part 5 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989.
- (2) No person referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section to whom disclosure of any information to which that subsection applies has been made shall disclose that information except to another person of the kind referred to in that subsection, for the purpose of—
- (a) the performance of the first-mentioned person's duties; or
 - (b) obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the matter.
- (3) No person referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section to whom disclosure of any information to which that subsection applies has been made shall disclose that information except to a person of the kind referred to in that subsection for the purpose of giving legal advice or making representations in relation to the matter.

- (4) Subject to section 21 of this Act, nothing in any of subsections (1) to (3) of this section shall prevent the disclosure of any information in connection with, or in the course of, proceedings before a court.

Section 20(1)(a): amended, on 1 October 2008, by section 130(1) of the Policing Act 2008 (2008 No 72).

21 Protection of identity of persons making suspicious transaction reports

- (1) This section applies in respect of the following information:
- (a) any suspicious transaction report;
 - (b) any information the disclosure of which will identify, or is reasonably likely to identify, any person—
 - (i) as a person who, in his or her capacity as an officer, employee, or agent of a financial institution, has handled a transaction in respect of which a suspicious transaction report was made; or
 - (ii) as a person who has prepared a suspicious transaction report; or
 - (iii) as a person who has made a suspicious transaction report.
 - (c) any information that discloses or is reasonably likely to disclose the existence of a suspicious transaction report.
- (2) No Police employee shall disclose any information to which this section applies except for one or more of the following purposes:
- (a) the detection, investigation, and prosecution of—
 - (i) money laundering offences; and
 - (ii) any serious offence (within the meaning of section 243 of the Crimes Act 1961), in any case where any property (being property that is suspected of being connected with any money laundering transaction) is suspected of being the proceeds of that serious offence;
 - (ab) the enforcement of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002:

- (b) the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:
 - (c) any activity relating to an application for a restraining order, assets forfeiture order, or profit forfeiture order under the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:
 - (d) any activity relating to the making of an instrument forfeiture order under section 142N of the Sentencing Act 2002:
 - (e) the administration of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1992.
- (3) No person may disclose, in any judicial proceeding (within the meaning of section 108 of the Crimes Act 1961), any information to which this section applies, unless the Judge or, as the case requires, the person presiding at the proceeding is satisfied that the disclosure of the information is necessary in the interests of justice.
- (4) Nothing in this section prohibits the disclosure of any information for the purposes of the prosecution of any offence against any of subsections (3) to (5) of section 22 of this Act.

Section 21(3): amended, on 3 June 1998, by section 4(2) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

22 Offences

- (1) Every financial institution commits an offence against this section who, in any case where—
 - (a) a transaction is conducted or is sought to be conducted through that financial institution; and
 - (b) that financial institution has reasonable grounds to suspect—
 - (i) that the transaction or, as the case requires, the proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any person for a money laundering offence; or
 - (ia) that the transaction or proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002; or
 - (ii) that the transaction or, as the case requires, the proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009,— fails, in contravention of section 15(1) of this Act, to report that transaction or, as the case requires, that proposed transaction to the Commissioner as soon as practicable after forming that suspicion.

- (2) Every financial institution who commits an offence against subsection (1) of this section is liable to a fine not exceeding,—
 - (a) in the case of an individual, $20,000;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate, $100,000.
- (3) Every person commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000 who, in making a suspicious transaction report, or in supplying information in connection with such a report—
 - (a) makes any statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) omits from any statement any matter or thing without which the person knows that the statement is false or misleading in a material particular.
- (4) Every person commits an offence who,—

- (a) for the purpose of obtaining, directly or indirectly, an advantage or a pecuniary gain for that person or any other person; or
 - (b) with intent to prejudice any investigation into the commission or possible commission of a money laundering offence,—contravenes any of subsections (1) to (3) of section 20 of this Act.
- (5) Every person commits an offence who,—
 - (a) being an officer or employee or agent of a financial institution; and
 - (b) having become aware, in the course of that person's duties as such an officer or employee or agent, that any investigation into any transaction or proposed transaction that is the subject of a suspicious transaction report is being, or may be, conducted by the Police; and
 - (c) knowing that he or she is not legally authorised to disclose the information; and
 - (d) either—
 - (i) for the purpose of obtaining, directly or indirectly, an advantage or a pecuniary gain for that person or any other person; or
 - (ii) with intent to prejudice any investigation into the commission or possible commission of a money laundering offence,—discloses that information to any other person.
- (6) Every person who commits an offence against subsection (4) or subsection (5) of this section is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.
- (7) Every person who knowingly contravenes any of subsections (1) to (3) of section 20 of this Act commits an offence and is liable,—
 - (a) in the case of an individual, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding $5,000;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding $20,000.
- (8) Every person commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000 who acts in contravention of section 21(3).

Section 22(8): added, on 3 June 1998, by section 5(2) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

23 Defence

- (1) It is a defence to a charge against a person in relation to a contravention of, or a failure to comply with, section 15(1) of this Act if the defendant proves—
 - (a) that the defendant took all reasonable steps to ensure that the defendant complied with that provision; or
 - (b) that, in the circumstances of the particular case, the defendant could not reasonably have been expected to ensure that the defendant complied with the provision.
- (2) In determining, for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section, whether or not a defendant took all reasonable steps to comply with section 15(1) of this Act, the court shall have regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the financial institution and the activities in which it engages; and
 - (b) the existence and adequacy of any procedures established by the financial institution to ensure compliance with that provision, including (without limitation)—
 - (i) staff training; and
 - (ii) audits to test the effectiveness of any such procedures.
- (3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, subsection (1) of this section shall not apply unless, within 21 days after the service of the summons, or within such further time as the court may allow, the defendant has delivered to the prosecutor a written notice—
 - (a) stating that the defendant intends to rely on subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (b) specifying the reasonable steps that the defendant will claim to have taken.

- (4) In any such prosecution, evidence that the defendant took a step not specified in the written notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall not, except with the leave of the court, be admissible for the purpose of supporting a defence under subsection (1) of this section.

Suspicious transaction guidelines

24 Commissioner to issue guidelines relating to reporting of suspicious transactions

- (1) Subject to section 25 of this Act, the Commissioner shall from time to time issue, in respect of each kind of financial institution to which this Act applies, guidelines—
- (a) setting out any features of a transaction that may give rise to a suspicion—
 - (i) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any person for a money laundering offence; or
 - (ia) that the transaction or proposed transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002; or
 - (ii) that the transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009;
 - (b) setting out any circumstances in which a suspicious transaction report relating to such a transaction may be made orally in accordance with section 15(3) of this Act, and the procedures for making such an oral report.
- (2) Suspicious transaction guidelines shall be issued in such manner as the Commissioner from time to time determines.
- (3) The Commissioner may from time to time issue an amendment or revocation of any suspicious transaction guidelines.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (1) of this section, suspicious transaction guidelines issued under this section may relate to 1 or more kinds of financial institution; and such guidelines may make different provision for different kinds of financial institution and different kinds of transactions.

Section 24(1)(a)(ia): inserted, on 17 October 2009, by section 161(2) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (2009 No 35).

Section 24(1)(a)(ii): amended, on 1 December 2009, by section 193 of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

25 Consultation on proposed guidelines

- (1) The Commissioner shall, before issuing any suspicious transaction guidelines,—
- (a) consult with, and invite representations from, the Privacy Commissioner under the Privacy Act 1993, and shall have regard to any such representations; and
 - (b) give public notice of the Commissioner's intention to issue the guidelines, which notice shall contain a statement—
 - (i) indicating the Commissioner's intention to issue the guidelines; and
 - (ii) inviting financial institutions that are likely to be affected by the proposed guidelines, and industry organisations that are representative of those financial institutions, to express to the Commissioner, within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice, their interest in being consulted in the course of the development of the guidelines; and
 - (c) consult with, and invite representations from, those financial institutions and industry organisations who express such an interest, and shall have regard to any such representations.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section prevents the Commissioner from adopting any additional means of publicising the proposal to issue any suspicious transaction guidelines or of consulting with interested parties in relation to such a proposal.
- (3) This section shall apply in respect of any amendment or revocation of any suspicious transaction guidelines.

26 Commissioner to make guidelines available to financial institutions and industry organisations

On request by any financial institution in respect of which any suspicious transaction guidelines are for the time being in force, or by any industry organisation that represents any such financial institution, the Commissioner shall, without charge,—

- (a) make those guidelines, and all amendments to those guidelines, available for inspection, by that financial institution or, as the case requires, that industry organisation, at Police National Headquarters at Wellington; and
- (b) provide copies of those guidelines, and all amendments to those guidelines, to that financial institution or, as the case requires, that industry organisation.

27 Review of guidelines

- (1) The Commissioner shall from time to time review any suspicious transaction guidelines for the time being in force.
- (2) Section 25 of this Act shall apply, with all necessary modifications, in relation to any such review as if the review were a proposal to issue suspicious transaction guidelines.

Application of Privacy Act 1993

28 Application of Privacy Act 1993

Any information contained in a suspicious transaction report or supplied in connection with such a report shall be deemed, for the purposes of the Privacy Act 1993 and any code of practice issued pursuant to that Act, to be obtained only for the following purposes:

- (a) the detection, investigation, and prosecution of offences against this Act:
- (b) the detection, investigation, and prosecution of—
 - (i) money laundering offences; and
 - (ii) any serious offence (within the meaning of section 243 of the Crimes Act 1961), in any case where any property (being property that is suspected of being connected with any money laundering transaction) is suspected of being the proceeds of that serious offence:
- (c) the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:

- (d) any activity relating to an application for a restraining order, assets forfeiture order, or profit forfeiture order under the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:
- (da) the enforcement of the Terrorism Suppression Act 2002:
- (e) any activity relating to the making of an instrument forfeiture order under section 142N of the Sentencing Act 2002:
- (f) the administration of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1992.

Section 28: amended, on 3 June 1998, by section 6 of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

Section 28(b)(ii): amended, on 1 October 2003, by section 34 of the Crimes Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 39).

Section 28(c): amended, on 1 December 2009, by section 194(1) of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

Section 28(d): substituted, on 1 December 2009, by section 194(2) of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

Section 28(da): inserted, on 17 October 2009, by section 161(2) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (2009 No 35).

Section 28(e): substituted, on 1 December 2009, by section 194(2) of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

Section 28(f): added, on 1 December 2009, by section 194(2) of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009 (2009 No 8).

Part 4

Retention of records

29 Obligation to keep transaction records

- (1) In relation to every transaction that is conducted through a financial institution, that financial institution shall keep such records as are reasonably necessary to enable that transaction to be readily reconstructed at any time by the Commissioner.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, such records shall contain the following information:
 - (a) the nature of the transaction:
 - (b) the amount of the transaction, and the currency in which it was denominated:
 - (c) the date on which the transaction was conducted:
 - (d) the parties to the transaction:

- (e) where applicable, the facility through which the transaction was conducted, and any other facilities (whether or not provided by the financial institution) directly involved in the transaction.
 - (f) the name of the officer, employee, or agent of the financial institution who handled the transaction, if that officer, employee, or agent—
 - (i) has face to face dealings in respect of the transaction with any of the parties to the transaction; and
 - (ii) has formed a suspicion (of the kind referred to in section 15(1)(b)) about the transaction.
- (3) Every financial institution shall retain the records kept by that financial institution, in accordance with this section, in relation to a transaction for a period of not less than 5 years after the completion of that transaction.

Section 29(2)(f): inserted, on 3 June 1998, by section 7 of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).

30 Obligation to keep verification records

- (1) In respect of each case in which a financial institution is required, by section 6 or section 7 or section 8 or section 9 or section 11 of this Act, to verify the identity of any person, that financial institution shall keep such records as are reasonably necessary to enable the nature of the evidence used for the purposes of that verification to be readily identified at any time by the Commissioner.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, such records may comprise,—
- (a) a copy of the evidence so used; or
 - (b) where it is not practicable to retain that evidence, such information as is reasonably necessary to enable that evidence to be obtained.
- (3) In respect of each case in which a financial institution verifies the identity of any person by either—
- (a) confirming the existence of a facility provided by another financial institution (in reliance on section 12(3) or section 12(4)); or

- (b) having complied with an earlier requirement to verify the identity of a person by confirming the existence of a facility provided by another financial institution (in reliance on section 12(3A)),— the first-mentioned financial institution must keep such records as are reasonably necessary to enable the identity of the other financial institution, and the identity of that facility, to be readily identified at any time by the Commissioner.
- (4) Every financial institution shall retain the records kept by that financial institution, in accordance with this section, for the following period:
 - (a) in the case of records relating to the verification of the identity of any person in relation to any facility, where the verification is carried out for the purposes of section 6 of this Act, for a period of not less than 5 years after that person ceases to be a facility holder in relation to that facility:
 - (b) in the case of records relating to the verification of the identity of any person in relation to any facility, where—
 - (i) that person is not a facility holder in relation to that facility; and
 - (ii) the verification is carried out, for the purposes of section 9 of this Act, with respect to a person who is such a facility holder,— for a period of not less than 5 years after that facility holder ceases to be a facility holder in relation to that facility:
 - (c) in the case of any other records relating to the verification of the identity of any person, for a period of not less than 5 years after the verification is carried out.

Section 30(3): substituted, on 7 May 1999, by section 2 of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1999 (1999 No 32).

31 Obligation to keep prescribed records

Every financial institution shall keep such records as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 56 of this Act, and shall retain them for such period as may be prescribed by such regulations.

32 How records to be kept

Records required by section 29 or section 30 or section 31 of this Act to be kept by any financial institution shall be kept either in written form in the English language, or so as to enable the records to be readily accessible and readily convertible into written form in the English language.

33 When records need not be kept

Nothing in section 29 or section 30 or section 31 of this Act requires the retention of any records kept by a financial institution (being a company) in any case where that financial institution has been liquidated and finally dissolved.

34 Destruction of records

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, every financial institution shall ensure that—
 - (a) every record retained by that financial institution pursuant to any provision of this Part of this Act; and
 - (b) every copy of any such record—is destroyed as soon as practicable after the expiry of the period for which the financial institution is required, by any provision of this Part of this Act, to retain that record.

- (2) Nothing in this section requires the destruction of any record, or any copy of any record, in any case where there is a lawful reason for retaining that record.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2) of this section, there is a lawful reason for retaining a record if the retention of that record is necessary—
 - (a) in order to comply with the requirements of any other enactment; or
 - (b) to enable any financial institution to carry on its business; or
 - (c) for the purposes of the detection, investigation, or prosecution of any offence.

35 Other laws not affected

Nothing in this Part of this Act limits or affects any other enactment that requires any financial institution to keep or retain any record.

36 Offences

- (1) Every financial institution commits an offence against this section who,—
 - (a) in contravention of section 29 of this Act, fails, without reasonable excuse, to retain or to properly keep records sufficient to satisfy the requirements of that section; or
 - (b) in contravention of section 30 of this Act, fails, without reasonable excuse, to retain or to properly keep records sufficient to satisfy the requirements of that section; or
 - (c) in contravention of section 31 of this Act, fails, without reasonable excuse, to retain or to properly keep records sufficient to satisfy the requirements of that section.
- (2) Every financial institution who commits an offence against this section is liable to a fine not exceeding,—
 - (a) in the case of an individual, $20,000;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate, $100,000.

Part 5

Obligation to report imports and exports of cash

37 Persons arriving in or leaving New Zealand must report cash

- (1) Every person who—
 - (a) arrives in New Zealand from another country or is leaving New Zealand; and
 - (b) has on his or her person, or in his or her accompanying baggage, or both, an amount of cash that, in total, exceeds the prescribed amount—shall make or cause to be made a report in accordance with this section.
- (2) Every report required by subsection (1) of this section—
 - (a) shall be in writing in the prescribed form (if any); and
 - (b) shall contain the following details in relation to the cash to which the report relates:
 - (i) the nature and amount of each type of cash;
 - (ii) the total amount of the cash; and

- (c) shall be signed by the person making the report or, as the case requires, on whose behalf the report is made; and
 - (d) shall be given to a Customs officer before the cash leaves the control of the Customs.
- (3) Where any person to whom subsection (1) of this section applies is, by reason of age or disability, incapable of complying with the requirements of this section, it shall be the responsibility of the parent or guardian or other person for the time being having the care of that person to comply with those requirements on that person's behalf.

Section 37(2)(d): amended, on 1 October 1996, by section 289(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 1996 (1996 No 27).

38 Power to search persons

- (1) Subject to this section, if any Customs officer has reasonable cause to suspect—
- (a) that any person who arrives in New Zealand from another country or is leaving New Zealand has, on his or her person, or in his or her accompanying baggage, or both, any cash; and
 - (b) that a cash report is required to be made in respect of that cash; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) that a cash report has not been made in respect of that cash; or
 - (ii) that a cash report made in respect of that cash is incomplete, incorrect, false, or misleading in any material respect,—
- the Customs officer may cause that person to be detained and searched, and reasonable force may be used against that person to effect such detention or search.
- (2) Any person detained pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may, before being searched, demand to be taken before a Justice of the Peace or a Community Magistrate or a Customs officer nominated for the purpose by the Chief Executive of the New Zealand Customs Service.
- (3) The Justice of the Peace or Community Magistrate or Customs officer referred to in subsection (2) of this section may order the person so detained to be searched, or may discharge the person without search.

- (4) The following provisions shall apply in respect of any search conducted pursuant to this section:
- (a) the search shall not be conducted unless the person to be searched has first been informed of his or her right, under subsection (2) of this section, to be taken before a Customs officer referred to in subsection (2) of this section or a Justice of the Peace or a Community Magistrate:
 - (b) the search shall be carried out only by a person of the same sex as the person to be searched:
 - (c) the search shall not be carried out in view of any person who is not of the same sex as the person to be searched:
 - (d) the search shall be conducted with decency and sensitivity and in a manner that affords to the person being searched the greatest degree of privacy and dignity consistent with the purpose of the search.
- (5) Any Customs officer who searches a person pursuant to this section may have the assistance of such assistants as the officer thinks necessary.

Section 38(5): amended, on 1 October 1996, by section 289(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 1996 (1996 No 27).

39 Power to search accompanying baggage

- (1) If any Customs officer has reasonable cause to suspect—

- (a) that there is, in any baggage that is accompanying any person who arrives in New Zealand from another country or who is leaving New Zealand, any cash; and
- (b) that a cash report is required to be made in respect of that cash; and
- (c) either—
 - (i) that a cash report has not been made in respect of that cash; or
 - (ii) that a cash report made in respect of that cash is incomplete, incorrect, false, or misleading in any material respect,— that Customs officer may detain that person and search that baggage, and may for that purpose open any package carried by that person.

- (2) For the purposes of effecting the detention of any person, or the search of any baggage that is accompanying any person, pursuant to this section, a Customs officer may use reasonable force against that person.

Section 39(2): amended, on 1 October 1996, by section 289(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 1996 (1996 No 27).

40 Offences

- (1) Every person commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $2,000 who,—
 - (a) in contravention of section 37 of this Act, fails, without reasonable excuse, to make or cause to be made a cash report that satisfies the requirements of that section; or
 - (b) without reasonable excuse, makes or causes to be made a cash report knowing that it is false or misleading in any material respect.
- (2) Every person commits an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding $1,000 who, otherwise than by force, wilfully obstructs any Customs officer in the exercise or performance of any power or duty conferred or imposed on that officer by this Part of this Act.

- (3) It is a defence to a charge under this section against a person in relation to a failure to make or cause to be made a cash report to a Customs officer before cash leaves the control of the Customs if the defendant proves—
- (a) that the failure was due to some emergency or to any other circumstances outside the reasonable control of the defendant; and
 - (b) that the defendant made or caused to be made a cash report in respect of that cash as soon as practicable after the obligation to make the report arose.

Section 40(3): amended, on 1 October 1996, by section 289(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 1996 (1996 No 27).

41 Chief Executive of New Zealand Customs Service may deal with cash reporting offences

- (1) If, in any case to which section 40(1)(a) of this Act applies, any person admits in writing that he or she has committed the offence, and requests that the offence be dealt with summarily by the Chief Executive of the New Zealand Customs Service, the Chief Executive may, at any time before an information has been laid in respect of the offence, accept from that person such sum, not exceeding $200, as the Chief Executive thinks just in the circumstances of the case, in full satisfaction of any fine to which the person would otherwise be liable under section 40 of this Act.
- (2) If the Chief Executive accepts any sum pursuant to this section, the offender shall not be liable to be prosecuted for the offence in respect of which the payment was made.

Section 41: substituted, on 1 October 1996, by section 289(1) of the Customs and Excise Act 1996 (1996 No 27).

42 Information to be forwarded to Commissioner

- (1) Where a cash report is made to a Customs officer, that officer shall, as soon as practicable, forward the report to the Commissioner.

- (2) Where, in the course of conducting a search pursuant to section 38 or section 39 of this Act, a Customs officer discovers any cash in respect of which a cash report is required to be made but has not been made, that officer shall, as soon as practicable, report the details of the search, and of the cash discovered, to the Commissioner.
- (3) Every report made pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be in such form as the Commissioner may from time to time determine after consultation with the Chief Executive of the New Zealand Customs Service.
- (4) The Chief Executive of the New Zealand Customs Service shall cause to be made and kept a record of each occasion on which a cash report is made to a Customs officer, together with details of the identity of the person making the report and the date on which the report is made, and shall ensure that such record is retained for a period of not less than 1 year after the date on which the cash report is made.

43 Application of Privacy Act 1993

Any information contained in any report made to the Commissioner pursuant to section 42 of this Act shall be deemed, for the purposes of the Privacy Act 1993 and any code of practice issued pursuant to that Act, to be obtained by the Police only for the following purposes:

- (a) the detection, investigation, and prosecution of—
 - (i) money laundering offences; and
 - (ii) any serious offence (within the meaning of section 243 of the Crimes Act 1961), in any case where any property (being property that is suspected of being connected with any money laundering transaction) is suspected of being the proceeds of that serious offence:

- (b) the enforcement of the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:
- (c) any activity relating to an application for a restraining order, assets forfeiture order, or profit forfeiture order under the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:
- (d) any activity relating to the making of an instrument forfeiture order under section 142N of the Sentencing Act 2002:
- (e) the administration of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1992.

Part 6 Miscellaneous provisions

Search warrants

44 Search warrants

Any District Court Judge, Justice, or Community Magistrate, or any Registrar (not being a member of the Police), who, on an application in writing made on oath, is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is in or on any place or thing—

- (a) any thing upon or in respect of which any offence against this Act or any regulations made under this Act has been, or is suspected of having been, committed; or
- (b) any thing which there are reasonable grounds for believing will be evidence as to the commission of any such offence; or
- (c) any thing which there are reasonable grounds for believing is intended to be used for the purpose of committing any such offence—may issue a search warrant in respect of that thing.

Compare: 1993 No 94 s 109

Section 44: amended, on 30 June 1998, by section 7 of the District Courts Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 76).

45 Form and content of search warrant

- (1) Every search warrant shall be in the prescribed form.
- (2) Every search warrant shall be directed to any member of the Police by name, or to any class of members of the Police specified in the warrant, or generally to every member of the Police.
- (3) Every search warrant shall be subject to such special conditions (if any) as the person issuing the warrant may specify in the warrant.
- (4) Every search warrant shall contain the following particulars:
 - (a) the place or thing that may be searched pursuant to the warrant:
 - (b) the offence or offences in respect of which the warrant is issued:
 - (c) a description of the articles or things that are authorised to be seized:
 - (d) the period during which the warrant may be executed, being a period not exceeding 14 days from the date of issue:
 - (e) any conditions specified pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

Compare: 1993 No 94 s 110

46 Powers conferred by warrant

- (1) Subject to any special conditions specified in the warrant pursuant to section 45(3) of this Act, every search warrant shall authorise the member of the Police executing the warrant,—
 - (a) to enter and search the place or thing specified in the warrant at any time by day or night during the currency of the warrant; and
 - (b) to use such assistants as may be reasonable in the circumstances for the purpose of the entry and search; and
 - (c) to use such force as is reasonable in the circumstances for the purposes of effecting entry, and for breaking open anything in or on the place searched; and

- (d) to search for and seize any thing referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 44 of this Act; and
 - (e) in any case where any thing referred to in any of those paragraphs is a document,—
 - (i) to take copies of the document, or extracts from the document;
 - (ii) to require any person who has the document in his or her possession or under his or her control to reproduce, or to assist the person executing the warrant to reproduce, in usable form, any information recorded or stored in the document.
- (2) Every person called upon to assist any member of the Police executing a search warrant shall have the powers described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section.

Compare: 1993 No 94 s 111

46A Power to stop vehicles

If it is necessary for a member of the Police to stop a vehicle for the purpose of exercising a search power conferred by section 46(1), sections 314B to 314D of the Crimes Act 1961 apply with any necessary modifications as if references in those sections to a statutory search power are references to section 46(1).

Section 46A: inserted, on 1 January 1998, by section 25 of the Crimes Amendment Act (No 2) 1997 (1997 No 93).

47 Person executing warrant to produce evidence of authority

Every member of the Police executing any search warrant—

- (a) shall have that warrant with him or her; and
- (b) shall produce it on initial entry and, if requested, at any subsequent time; and
- (c) shall, if requested at the time of the execution of the warrant or at any subsequent time, provide a copy of the warrant within 7 days after the request is made.

Compare: 1993 No 94 s 112

48 Notice of execution of warrant

Every member of the Police who executes a search warrant shall, not later than 7 days after the seizure of any thing pursuant to that warrant, give to the owner or occupier of the place or thing searched, and to every other person whom the member of the Police has reason to believe may have an interest in the thing seized, a written notice specifying—

- (a) the date and time of the execution of the warrant; and
- (b) the identity of the person who executed the warrant; and
- (c) the thing seized under the warrant.

Compare: 1993 No 94 s 113

49 Custody of property seized

Where property is seized pursuant to a search warrant, the property shall be kept in the custody of a member of the Police, except while it is being used in evidence or is in the custody of any court, until it is dealt with in accordance with another provision of this Act.

Compare: 1993 No 94 s 114

50 Procedure where certain documents seized from lawyers' offices

Section 198A of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, so far as applicable and with all necessary modifications, shall apply in respect of the seizure of any documents under any search warrant as if the search warrant had been issued under section 198 of that Act.

51 Disposal of things seized

- (1) This section shall apply with respect to anything seized under a search warrant.
- (2) In any proceedings for an offence relating to anything seized under a search warrant, the court may order, either at the trial or hearing or on an application, that the thing be delivered to the person appearing to the court to be entitled to it, or that it be otherwise disposed of in such manner as the court thinks fit.
- (3) Any member of the Police may at any time, unless an order has been made under subsection (2) of this section, return the thing to the person from whom it was seized, or apply to a District Court Judge for an order as to its disposal. On any such application, the District Court Judge may make any order that a court may make under subsection (2) of this section.

- (4) If proceedings for an offence relating to the thing are not brought within a period of 3 months of seizure, any person claiming to be entitled to the thing may, after the expiration of that period, apply to a District Court Judge for an order that it be delivered to him or her. On any such application, the District Court Judge may adjourn the application, on such terms as he or she thinks fit, for proceedings to be brought, or may make any order that a court may make under subsection (2) of this section.
- (5) Where any person is convicted in any proceedings for an offence relating to anything in respect of which a search warrant has been issued enabling seizure, and any order is made under this section, the operation of the order shall be suspended,—
- (a) in any case until the expiration of the time prescribed by the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 or, as the case may require, the time prescribed by the Crimes Act 1961 for the filing of notice of appeal or an application for leave to appeal; and
 - (b) where notice of appeal is filed within the time so prescribed, until the determination of the appeal; and
 - (c) where application for leave to appeal is filed within the time so prescribed, until the application is determined and, where leave to appeal is granted, until the determination of the appeal.
- (6) Where the operation of any such order is suspended until the determination of the appeal, the court determining the appeal may, by order, cancel or vary the order.

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:
- (a) prescribing the forms of applications, warrants, reports, and other documents required under this Act:
 - (b) prescribing amounts that are required to be prescribed for the purposes of Part 2:
 - (c) prescribing, for the purposes of section 31 of this Act, records to be kept and retained by financial institutions, or any specified class or classes of financial institutions, and the periods for which those records are to be retained:
 - (d) exempting or providing for the exemption of any transaction or class of transactions from all or any of the provisions of this Act:
 - (e) prescribing, for the purposes of this Act, or any provision or provisions of this Act, what accounts and arrangements shall be deemed to be or not to be facilities, and the circumstances and conditions in which any account or arrangement shall be deemed to be or not to be a facility:
 - (f) prescribing, for the purposes of this Act, or any provision or provisions of this Act, what persons or classes of persons shall be deemed to be or not to be financial institutions, and the circumstances and conditions in which any persons or classes of persons shall be deemed to be or not to be financial institutions:
 - (g) prescribing, for the purposes of this Act, or any provision or provisions of this Act, what transactions shall be deemed to be or not to be occasional transactions, and the circumstances and conditions in which any transac-

- tion shall be deemed to be or not to be an occasional transaction:
- (h) prescribing the manner in which any notice or other document required by this Act to be given or served by, or to or on, any person is to be so given or served:
 - (i) prescribing offences in respect of the contravention of or non-compliance with any provision of any regulations made under this section, and prescribing fines, not exceeding $2,000, that may, on conviction, be imposed in respect of any such offences:
 - (j) providing for such matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for their due administration.
- (2) No regulations may be made pursuant to any of paragraphs (d) to (g) of subsection (1) of this section except on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice, and before making any such recommendation, the Minister shall—
- (a) do everything reasonably possible on the Minister's part to advise all persons who in the Minister's opinion will be affected by any regulations made in accordance with the recommendation, or representatives of those persons, of the proposed terms of the recommendation, and of the reasons for it; and
 - (b) give such persons or their representatives a reasonable opportunity to consider the recommendation and to make submissions on it to the Minister, and shall consider any such submissions; and
 - (c) give notice in the Gazette, not less than 28 days before making the recommendation, of the Minister's intention to make the recommendation and state in the notice the matters to which the recommendation relates; and
 - (d) make copies of the recommendation available for inspection by any person who so requests before any regulations are made in accordance with the recommendation.
- (3) Failure to comply with subsection (2) of this section shall in no way affect the validity of any regulations made under this section.

Section 56(1)(b): amended, on 17 October 2009, by section 161(2) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (2009 No 35).

56A Consultation not required for consolidation of certain regulations

The Minister of Justice is not required to comply with section 56(2) in respect of the making of any regulations to the extent that the regulations—

- (a) revoke any regulations made pursuant to any of paragraphs (d) to (g) of section 56(1); and
- (b) at the same time, consolidate the revoked regulations, so that they have the same effect as those revoked regulations.

Section 56A: inserted, on 3 June 1998, by section 8 of the Financial Transactions Reporting Amendment Act 1998 (1998 No 46).
